Authorised persons/emergency contacts

In case of an emergency, Diamond Valley Sports and Fitness Centre staff will attempt to contact the parent/guardians of the child directly. There may be times when the child has an injury or illness and the parents/guardians are unable to be contacted.

In these situations, the Children's Services Team will contact the following people in the order that you list them below.

These people will have the authority to:

- authorise an educator to take the child outside of the premises if required
- authorise an educator to administer medication or medical treatment to the child
- collect the child from the service
